V. Tax residence

Norway has entered into agreements with a number of countries concerning the automatic exchange of tax information (FATCA and CRS). These agreements require the bank to collect a self-certification declaration stating where the account holder is tax resident and report the account information to the Norwegian Tax Administration. The Norwegian Tax Administration will forward this information to the local tax authorities in the account holder's country of residence. If the account holder is resident for tax purposes in a country other than Norway, the foreign identity number of the account holder must be obtained. If a self-certification declaration cannot be obtained, an account cannot be opened or maintained for the account holder. If in doubt about where you are resident for tax purposes, contact a tax adviser or the local tax office.

Which countries are you tax resident in?

Please state below all countries in which you are tax resident (including Norway). If you are in doubt about how tax liability is determined, contact a tax advisor or the local tax office.

NB! If you are a US citizen, you are a tax resident of the United States (including persons with dual citizenship).

Are you tax resident in Norway?

Guidelines and definitions

1) Politically Exposed Person (PEP)

A politically exposed person (PEP) is a natural person who holds or has held a position or an office as:

- I. head of state, head of government, minister or assistant minister,
- II. member of the National Assembly,
- III. member of the decision-making body of a political party,
- IV. member of high-level judicial body that adopts decisions that cannot be appealed or can be appealed only in exceptional cases,
- V. member of the board of the office of the auditor general, court of auditors or central bank,
- VI. ambassador, chargé d'affaire or high ranking military officer in the armed forces,
- VII. member of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of state-owned enterprises,
- VIII. director, board member or holder of other senior position in international organisations.

2) Immediate family member

An immediate family member means:

Parents, spouse, civil partner, cohabitant and children. It is also children, their spouses, their civil partners or their cohabitants.

3) Known close associate

A known close associate means a natural person known to:

- I. be a beneficial owner of a legal entity, association or foreign legal entity in collaboration with a politically exposed person (PEP)
- II. have close business connections to a politically exposed person (PEP)
- III. be the only beneficial owner of a legal entity, association or foreign legal arrangement that in reality has been established to benefit a politically exposed person (PEP).

Beneficial owner of a natural person/private customer

A beneficial owner means a natural person who ultimately has direct or indirect deciding influence over the funds on the account.

CRS

CRS is the abbreviation of "Common Reporting Standard" as adopted by the OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development), an international legal framework for tax authorities in the various countries to exchange information. An official test of countries that have signed the CRS is published on the OECD website:

<http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/international-framework-for-the-crs/> under "List of CRS MCAA signatories".

FATCA

FATCA is the abbreviation of "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act" which is a US law aimed at identifying US persons or entities with financial assets outside the United States.

A list of all countries that have entered into agreements of this nature can be found on the US Department of the Treasury website: (<https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/tax-policy/foreign-account-tax-compliance-act>)

Tax resident

You are considered to be tax resident if you have a permanent and strong link with the country and are liable for taxation to that country. In the case of extended stays in another country you may be considered to be resident for tax purposes in that country. For further information, please see the bank's website and the Norwegian Tax Administration's information pages (<https://www.skatteetaten.no/bedrift-og-organisasjon/rapportering-og-bransjer/tredjepartsopplysninger/bank-finans-og-forsikring/om-crs-og-fatca/informasjon-til-kunder/personer>). You may be tax resident in multiple countries.

You are as a general rule tax resident in the United States if you hold a valid residence permit or work permit.

In the event of doubt about where you are tax resident, contact a tax adviser or the local tax office.

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

A taxpayer identification number (TIN or the equivalent) is a unique number allocated to persons and entities by the tax authorities for identification purposes. Not all countries issue TINs, some have other forms of numbers for identification. In the case of individuals, their taxpayer identification number will normally be their Personal Identity Number.

Detailed information on the taxpayer identification numbers of various countries can be found on the OECD website.

US citizen

If you are a US citizen, you will be regarded as tax resident in the United States (including persons with dual nationality).

If you were born in the United States, you are a US citizen unless you have actively relinquished your citizenship.
